2. Upon entry of this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture, the United States Attorney General, or his designee, is authorized to seize the Forfeited Assets and to conduct any proper discovery, in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3) and (c), and to commence any applicable proceeding to comply with statutes governing third party rights, including giving notice of this Order.

3. The United States Attorney's Office shall publish notice of this Order, in accordance with the custom and practice in this district, on the government website www.forfeiture.gov, of its intent to dispose of the Forfeited Assets in such a manner as the Attorney General or his designee may direct. The United States may, to the extent practicable, provide direct written notice to any person known or alleged to have an interest in the Forfeited Assets as a substitute for published notice as to those persons so notified.

4. The Defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives his right to any required notice concerning the forfeiture of the monies and properties forfeited hereunder. In addition, the Defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives his right, if any, to a jury trial on the forfeiture of said monies and/or properties, and waives all constitutional, legal and equitable defenses to the forfeiture of said monies and/or properties, including, but not limited to, any defenses based on principles of double jeopardy, the Ex Post Facto clause of the Constitution, the statute of limitations, venue, or any defense under the Eighth Amendment, including a claim of excessive fines.

5. Any person, other than the Defendant asserting a legal interest to the Forfeited Assets may, within thirty (30) days of the final publication of notice or receipt of notice, whichever is earlier, petition the court for a hearing without a jury to adjudicate the validity of his or her alleged interest in the property, and for an amendment of the order of forfeiture, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(6). Any petition filed in response to notice of the forfeiture of the Forfeited Assets must be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title, or interest in the property, any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim, and the relief sought.

6. The Defendant shall not file or interpose any claim or assist others to file or interpose any claim to the Forfeited Assets, in any administrative or judicial proceeding. Further, if any third party files a claim to the Forfeited Assets the Defendant will assist the government in defending such claim. If the Forfeiture Money Judgment is not paid in full on or before the Due Date, the Defendant consents to the forfeiture of any other property, real or personal, of his, up to the value of the Forfeiture Money Judgment, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(p), the Federal Debt Collection Procedures Act, or any other applicable law. The payment of the Forfeiture Money Judgment and the forfeiture of the Forfeited Assets shall not be considered a payment of a fine or a payment on any income taxes that may be due.

7. The United States shall have clear title to the Forfeited Assets identified above following the Court's disposition of all third-party interests, or, if none, following the expiration of the period provided in 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(2).

8. Pursuant to the Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(4)(A), this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture shall become final as to the Defendant upon entry of this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture, and shall be made part of the sentence and included in the judgment. If no third party files a timely claim, this Preliminary Order, together with Supplemental Preliminary Orders of Forfeiture, if any, shall become the Final Order of Forfeiture, as provided by Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c)(2).

9. This Preliminary Order shall be binding upon the Defendant and the successors, administrators, heirs, assigns and transferees of the Defendant, and shall survive the bankruptcy of any of them.
